STUDENT AMBASSADOR
JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Unite Student Ambassador

Salary: £8.45ph (London weighting £9.75ph)

Location: You must be re-booking in one of our properties to be an Ambassador

Duration: September to December (unless otherwise notified of further work). Additional opportunities available if staying over the summer.

Hours: Work is relatively flexible and there are various hours and activities for you to get involved in.

WHAT IS A STUDENT AMBASSADOR?

A Student Ambassador is someone who enjoys meeting new people, encourages others to get involved and is happy to help answer any questions someone may have. They are always eager to help out; ensuring new arrivals settle in and make the most out of their time while at University.

Student Ambassadors also get the opportunity to get involved in exciting projects and assisting staff to host events and tours for our students.

YOUR MAIN ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Welcome students and parents on check-in weekend, helping new arrivals feel at home
- Show students around their new home and help them to settle in
- Provide tours of the local area showing students the best places to shop, eat and have fun
- Support with hosting and organising social events
- Encourage students to get involved in events and activities
- Represent Unite Students and help answer questions at Accommodation Fairs and Open Days
- Promote tours, activities and events on social media channels
- Co-host live tours (summer work)

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

- Be a positive representative of Unite Students
- Be friendly, approachable and happy to answer questions
- Take the lead on hosting events and encourage students to get involved
- Use your creative talents to support the team
- Show an eagerness to get involved and share your experiences
- Complete all relevant training prior to welcome weekend
- Attend anything you’ve committed to
